

JOINS

CONSERVATIVES

[CHAP, xnr

> 71* Can devise_ It
is

as
be

! ~ ~ ~

sconsiye

impossible

to avoid ^

Ind *t

i m

c

i

e

n

t

l

y

?

o

u

t

t

h

I ^ov the ^

love d

what is the cause of

e

for ever;

do I deem it

Es ablisioneBt

in tha Tc^o ry

to the population

which it will never consent

that the our

Establishment

shall e ject

save the interests of ?J

rience has

taught nfe

except to benefit « that

great lords,

and lands and

great tithes

I the

reminiscence.

every claim of this great bodvtW
 prehensive tolerati of relied constitution of the tration and the m the question of Se endure that every time one the scene of contested e'ectio^a jent must be respected but S' Dissenters.

Then
 there are the claims
 of the

no t
 be

Staild
 I woul(i S?
 mt of tllé
 most
 corn-^{il}T Wth the
 établis
 hed^r ^^j
 think that
 the
 regis-
 ConCeded^{}
 As for Im^possible
 that we can
 * ^ Should Present ^ of
 the Establi^h-
 Sake of s^{tle} Establishment
 f^r Amoved.
 These are
 con-a numerous
 and powerful intelligence, and tE ^ repeat ^ to their numbers, ion with the CinttancV⁰?ft^{tyj} -Snd co^o ^ stent, in my blessing with which I am ^ f of au Established Church a ^ * 0 am resolved to uhol P^{art} > ^ d wMch I

it a
 gu
 ara
 nte
 e
 of

^
 the Government that to
 they wiU
 adopt a
 be is also ° ^ ^ attitude

nd
enumerate
d, 1* ort
them;
tho_{ugh},
poHcy, he is careful

v t
o
be to . not I
yet e am to comnut
himself.

